D. Cassidy/S. Shifrin

Tonight no words are spoken
There's no one here to blame
Somewhere a life is frozen
Just a dying flame
Some place in the dark
Lies a beating heart
We all have that cross to bear
And I just can't hide my shame

Send a message to the world
Everybody say yes
Send an SOS
Send a message to the world
Everybody come on
Everybody say yeah

Somebody's life is missing
Someone's hope is gone
Is anybody listening?
Can they hear this song
Now I have no choice
I can't ignore that voice
When I close my eyes at night
I swear I can hear them calling

Send a message to the world
Everybody say yes
Send an SOS
Send a message to the world
Everybody come on
Everybody say yeah

Can you feel it comin'
Something's in the air
Are you ready for it - oh yeah
Everybody - can't you see the light
The light of day - get together - everybody say yeah
