What a sound for me to hear!
Heard you love him, but you said you'd always be my sweet little baby
Thought I was the only one till you showed your skillful ways
And now I see all that you are What a voice, I thought I had use through 'Cause we both said that without truth one soul would then become two Now you read it all wrong
'Cause I won't sing another sad song
So you lie, and you cheat
It doesn't mean that much to me
'Cause I know everything has it's own returnity It's untrue you can't prove you've done well living off me Tell your friends for what you got was your responsibility
What sight you were Those days I first met you Walking hand in hand a long, long time ago
Yes, this is true Innocent young girl you were Daddy's little one
How could you be so unkind?
Sometimes I wish your eyes were blind, so the rest of you could see
No respect for lovin'
You just say to yourself, "what's in it for me?"
