We are all God's music
You and I, yes we are We're the chosen rhyme and rhythm of the brightest star The greatest songs ever written He wrote straight from the heart So tell me why would you change a perfect work of art?

Be a peaceful child of God
Be good and sing along
But let him play your song for you

We are all a part of creation that was planned so skillfully Here in a cosmic orchestra we play so lovingly He knew love was right when he made it Yes from his sustaining hands The greatest song which he called love will forever stand
