Back on that summer afternoon I can still see you dressed in blue, I said I Love you and you felt the same. When I see you with somebody else my whole World crashes down

Do you miss me now? Doesn't matter anyhow cause were already through the End of me and you. Do you see my face every now and then? Bet you wish you Were with me instead of him

Just the other afternoon I thought I'd never run into you.
How are you Doing the talk was small, you said you saw me with somebody else now it's Your world crashing down. Now I don't have to wonder

Do you miss me now? Doesn't matter anyhow cause
were already through the End of me and you. Do you see my face every now and then? Bet you wish you

Me and you me and you had it all figured out how were we to know this is Where we'd be now
Me and you me and you could of had it all but you through it all away this Is all your fault

Do you miss me now? Doesn't matter anyhow cause
were already through the End of me and you. Do you see my face every now and then? Bet you wish I Was right there next to you
