I have spent half my life with a pen and a pad and sleepless nights and I Wouldn't change or give anything. I am ready for what the world brings.
Here I am take me as I am

I wouldn't trade I would trade anything for the life I lead
or the dreams
Iv chased You wouldn't understand understand what it takes to go face to Face with all your dreams, all yours dreams.

Take a look in your heart reach into your soul and set em apart, this is Your vision, this is your sound you only get one chance so lets make it Count. Opportunity only knocks once you gotta open the door you gotta take Your shot

I wouldn't trade I would trade anything for the life I lead
or the dreams
takes to go face to Face with all your dreams, all yours dreams.

No regrets, no lookin back, time will come and it will pass you gotta make It last

I wouldn't trade I would trade anything for the life I lead
or the dreams
takes to go face to Face with all your dreams, all yours dreams.

No you can't give up, no you can't let go, dreams will never die even when You lifes on hold
