Got somethin to talk about, and not about your letters. I bet you thought You'd count me out, I shoulda known better. I'll never let you in again Cause I burned all your letters. Now I'll take a different step, I shoulda Known better

Everything you said to me never got under my skin it just got stuck in my Head. Things you wrote to me, I guess you'll never see letters I never sent
And I wonder where I went wrong with you. Finally I can leave cause I see
The truth

Tried to sit down and talk, reasons fall on def ears, should I stay or Should I walk? What am I doing here? I thought you would save me but it was A waste of time. You were a nightmare now it's time to say good bye, good Bye

just got stuck in my Head. Things you wrote to me, I guess you'll never see
letters I never sent
leave cause I see
The truth

You were no good for me I was no good for you you were no goodfor me I was No good for you can't you see

just got stuck in my
letters I never sent

leave cause I see
The truth

You were no good for me I was no good for you
