[Tommy "The Touch" Wolf:]

Let my senses fall and rove too deep, yeah
'Till I know what I've lost without you
Wondering how to make amends, yeah
I can't make a move, I'm stuck inside of me

[Jennifer "The Devotion" Michaels:]

Lost your faith
Life goes on without you
No one's there when you're falling apart
Lost your soul
You can't live without it
Please believe what I'm saying

[Dr. Robert "The Science" Richards:]

Call your inner voice and pray
Seems like you're lost in time, lost in time...

[Carol "The Heart" Jordan:]

You've got to live
Don't know just what I'm feeling
Get all the memories left behind
You'd better live or die before leaving
Before drifting apart again

[Rev. Mike "The Faith" Simmons:]

So you're chasing your fears away
But a coma is more than you could bear

[Tommy's Mind:]

Still don't know just what it really means
While he works his fingers right to the bone, yeah

[Jennifer:]

Lost your faith
Life goes on without you
No one's there and your brain falls apart
Lost your soul
You can't live without her
What you give ain't what you've got

[Robert:]

Call your inner voice and pray
That's when you lose your sight and you get your real sight...

[Carol:]

You've got to live
Don't know just what I'm feeling
Find all the memories left behind
You'd better live or die before leaving
Before drifting apart again

I beg you please
A magic shot is all it takes
You're hanging by such a fragile thread
A different way
A whole brand new beginning
Pick up the pieces, one by one...

[Tommy:]

My blood ain't spilling but I need an ignition
Holy water is flowing through me
Counting the drops 'til I get salvation
Here's my turn, my destiny

I can see the day when I was alive
Seize the day 'cause tomorrow may never come
I can't see the day I'll be coming back alive
While nothing stays the same

I can see the day when I was alive...
I can't see the day I'll be coming back alive...
Please believe what I'm saying... Yeah!

[Carol:]

You've got to live
Don't know just what I'm feeling
Find all the memories left behind
You'd better live or die before leaving
Before drifting apart again

I beg you please
A magic shot is all it takes
You're hanging by such a fragile thread
A different way
A whole brand new beginning
Pick up the pieces, one by one

[Tommy:]

I can see the day when I was alive...
I can't see the day I'll be coming back alive...

I can't see the day I'll be coming back alive...

I can see the day when I was alive...

I can't see the day I'll be coming back alive...
