I guess I may never know what makes you tick, the rhythm of your heart beat Or the sway of your hips

Grab a drink and make your way to the dance floor.
Lose your keys and lose Your mind forget about tomorrow.

There she goes dancing on pool tables but does she even know, she's Beautiful

Yeah she's a wild one she'll pull on your heart strings
until they come Undone yeah she's a crazy one she'll mess with your head just for fun Yeah some people say she's fake and full of lies that may be the truth but She's all mine, all mine

Your not scared or unprepared you take on the world, every night you live Your life like your invincible. You don't regret you don't really care about The hearts you stole, when the dj plays your song you lose all control

There she goes dancing on pool tables but does she even know she's beautiful Yeah she's a wild one she'll pull on your heart strings
until they come
Undone yeah she's a crazy one she'll mess with your head just for fun yeah
Some people think she's fake and full of lies that may be the truth but
She's all mine, all mine

It's last call baby it's time to figure out where this nights going, what's Your all about. It's last call baby it's time to figure out where this

Nights going, what your all about

Yeah she's a wild one she'll pull on your heart strings
until they come

head just for fun yeah

be the truth but
