I know you feel like there's nothing to feel but that's the biggest lie of the day so dig it down into the ground
- that you don't want anything and it's true it hurts to wake up there was a couple of years for me, too when my brain was black & blue and I couldn't feel anything Silverjacketgirl, you've got the whole world in your head say you weren't waiting for anyone or anything you weren't waiting for anything you weren't waiting to come back

- you were dead

a dive into the blues I'm warning you some half-hearted truth some way of sliding thru to the other side well all it takes is calming down all it takes is getting down
