Taking turns at games we play
I heard you call for a need to explore
All my secrets and more again
So I won't mind if you drop by
This house is lost without your smile beside me
Stepping up the pace
We'll scorch the inner city
Friends and family waste
We'll scorch the inner city
Be my latest craze
We'll scorch the inner city
Because I will never ever try to leave you like I
With a brand new head, I can start again
I'll rip it up and I fill in the blanks
From the time on the shelf, my friend
But things will change in this arcade
But for know we'll entertain each other
Stepping up the pace
We'll scorch the inner city
Friends and family waste
We'll scorch the inner city
Be my latest craze
We'll scorch the inner city
Because I will never ever try to leave you like I
Walk on by, and things will be ok
We'll both be fine, in Sunset Boulevard
Stepping up the pace
We'll scorch the inner city
Friends and the family waste
We'll scorch the inner city
Be my latest craze
We'll scorch the inner city
Because I will never ever try to leave you like I
One mistake is never enough
One mistake is never enough
One mistake is never enough
One mistake is never enough
I saw you creeping through my windowsill
