[Intro]

Baby all I want is you you you you you
All I want is you you you you you
Your all i want

[Verse 1]

See the years keep passing us by
And yet you still keep catching my eye
And you just keep improving
Loving how you moving
Your the sweetest music, to my ears
And you just cant go no wrong
Its been you all along
You went through once this song
Baby maybe im gone
Yes i got it back
Usher been told me that
Hope you know i mean that

[Pre-Chorus]

I'd rather give you time instead of roses
See your face instead of cash
I'd rather give you love instead of clothing
Is that to much to ask

[Chorus]

Baby all I want is you you you you you
All I want is you you you you you
Baby all I want is you you you you you
All I want is you you you you you
Your all I want

[verse 2]

Now i might sound alittle bit strange
Cause i know every dude thats feelin this way
Baby they aint got you
Most of them aint met you
You know your the soundtrack, to my life
If im jay-z or beyonce eh
I lead you like the ?
Believe me when i say that
This aint make believe

Baby you were meant for me
Hope you know i mean that

[Pre-Chorus]

I'd rather give you time instead of roses
See your face instead of cash
I'd rather give you love instead of clothing
Is that to much to ask

[Chorus]

Baby all I want is you you you you you
All I want is you you you you you
Baby all I want is you you you you you
All I want is you you you you you
Your all I want
