[Sean Kingston]

Hope is a river, a stream of Casting your fears away, the sky

[B.o.B]

Shouts out to the underdogs who Put their favorite artists on the walls and Can never get enough of one song
So it plays and it plays all day long Cause all the pain outside they don't wanna see So they write songs constantly Cause a doctor or a lawyer they don't wanna be
And I ask do you really have grow up just to be what you wanna be?
So shouts out to the mc's and the divas and the singers and the prom queens
And the folks who don't ever get invited to the party
But somehow be the first on the scene
To the folks who just wanna be free F-ck all of that YouTube, young, you can't see Ask them when's the last time they had a dream Cause every river leads to the sea, to the sea

[Sean Kingston]

Hope is a river that runs random, a stream of floating desires Casting your fears away, as it float above the skies, the skies
Where your worries will drown out
You imagine how it would be right now Casting your fears away as it float above the skies, the
skies

Hope is a river (hope is a river, hope is a river)
Hope is a river (hope is a river, hope is a river)
Hope is a river, of dreams run free, so be real, real,
real, to be real

And I pray for the good days, for the world to be a better place
Cause I know one day, be a better way, everyone could have a getaway

Where we go into a place where there's love in hearts now, hearts now, hearts now
And I know that one day will be away from the gun play Cause somehow all the pain got a soon change Take away all the pain and the hate til its love now
The world needs a big change and we need it right now

[Sean Kingston]

Hope is a river that runs random, a stream of floating
desires
Casting your fears away, as it float above the skies, the
skies
Where your worries will drown out
You imagine how it would be right now Casting your fears away as it float above the skies, the
skies
Hope is a river (hope is a river, hope is a river)
Hope is a river (hope is a river, hope is a river)
Hope is a river, of dreams run free, so be real, real,
real, to be real
