Ah dee dum
Let it rain let it rain let it rain
I'm in a rush and I'm cuttin' through lanes
To get to my baby who don't want me late
To take her to a special place

Soon as I walk to the door
I see someone sneakin' out the back door
That's when her face fell to the floor
She said she don't have to explain but you want more

Don't know why you wanna do this to me
Guess nothings left
What you tryin' to achieve?
I shoulda listened what my boys tried to tell me
Guess the wrong place, wrong time for me

(Chorus)
Your hungry for men
You dont want no one die
Hungry for men
They dont hurt you
Its the reason why your hungry for men
With that look in your eyes
Your hungry for men

Im a lover not a fighter no way
Thought you wanted more than someone to entertain
How could you do Sean Kingston this way?
I let down my guard I have no one to blame

Dont know why you wanna do this to me
What you tryin to achieve?
I shoulda listened what my boys tried to tell me
Guess the wrong place, wrong time for me

Your hungry for men
You dont want no one die
Hungry for men
They dont hurt you

Its the reason why your hungry for men
With that look in your eyes
Your hungry for men

Soon as I came to the door
Who's that runnin through the back door?
I seen that dude before
Its not the first time you gone get yours

Hungry for men (4x)

Your hungry for men
You dont want no one die
Hungry for men
They dont hurt you
Its the reason why your hungry for men
With that look in your eyes
Your hungry for men

She's hungry for men (4x)
