Hey Mr. brave
You're a slave
To fortune and fame
My life's like a knife
Cutting deep, but I live with the pain

Calling my bluff
I've had enough
Of all the things that I
Can't change

The Grim-reaper is gone
Told him move it along
He's just bad company

So what do you say?
To taking on the world today
And singing to the world's sweetest melody
It's a luxury
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Okay
I'm taking on the world today
And breathing in the life right in front of me
My philosophy
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover

When you're cracking
Cause you're lacking
The control
Of the stress and the strains
Try to keep yourself on track
When obstacles get thrown your way

If it's pouring on you
Here's what you do
Go find a raincoat right now
My friend

The Grim-reaper is gone
Told him move it along
He's just bad company

So what do you say?
To taking on the world today
And singing to the world's sweetest melody
It's a luxury
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Okay
I'm taking on the world today
My philosophy
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Four leaf clover

(Instrumental Solo)

I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Okay

I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Okay
I'm taking over the world today
And breathing in the life right in front of me
My philosophy
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
