Outside my window
I can see the pouring rain
Though I understand that now you're gone
I'm still waiting for the pain

Feel like an empty shell
I watch this all go by
I can see the tables turning
Thunderbolts across the sky

You should have known it
When you left me all alone
That I'm not the one who'll take the blows
You deal out from your throne

And it makes me wonder
What's going on here
My world is breaking
My hands are shaking
I feel my my power
Like out of nowhere
Can't no more fake it
But I can break it:
Your evil empire

Outside my window
I can see this all go by
Though I have just stared my walls instead
I know I have lived a lie

Your words are now remote
Your face is like a mask
There is one more thing for me to do

To carry out this task

You've seen it coming
You have seen it all before
I am not the one who'll take the blows
You deal out from your throne

And it makes me wonder

What's going on here
My world is breaking
My hands are shaking
I feel my my power
Like out of nowhere
Can't no more fake it
But I can break it:
Your evil empire

Outside my window
The world is getting cold
We hurt each other
We do what we've been told
And when the day will come
That we should take the reins
We'll run away

And it makes me wonder
My world is breaking
My hands are shaking
I feel my my power
But I can break it:
