Late at night, the heartache washes over me
Said goodbye, my love, and now I just can't sleep
Whisper soft on the wind, I almost hear you cry Calling through the darkenss. Oh, you're still part of my life

You're a ghost in my heart, ghost in my dreams
Haunting me with memories
You're a ghost in my heart, ghost in my dreams
Can't let go of you and me

Morning comes without you, how do I hold on
In my hands, the shattered pieces of my heart
Everywhere that I turn reminds me of our past
Chasing every shadow, will I find some peace at last

You're a ghost in my heart, ghost in my dreams
Haunting me with memories
You're a ghost in my heart, ghost in my dreams
Can't let go of you and me
