We walk the streets, we follow light
I follow you
You take me on, you lead the night I stick to you
You hear my heart, won't beat ahead You draw me in
You take the night, one step ahead You let me in
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are drowning
in the bright light
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are dancing
'till the night dies
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are blinded
by the big lights
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are dancing
in the sunrise
We leave the streets, we fly away too high to reach We walk alone from here to way way out of reach I hear the sound from deep within one beat ahead
We're closing in, I see the edge one step ahead
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are drowning
in the bright light
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are dancing
'till the night dies
Out of the fire
and into the sun

we are blinded
by the big lights
Out of the fire
and into the sun
we are dancing
in the sunrise
We are starlight, black sky lit up
Out of the fire
and into the sun
in the bright light
and into the sun
we are dancing
'till the night dies
and into the sun
by the big lights
Out of the fire
and into the sun
in the sunrise
