On and on
This love I feel for you goes on and on

This world can be a scary place
And so much love goes to waste
One moment everything is clear
The next it all could disappear

We need something to hold on to
I wanna be that thing for you
'Cause you're not in this all alone
Your heart has finally found a home

(Chorus)
On and on
This love I feel for you goes on and on
It's something you can't lose
You're gonna find, this heart of mine
Will stand the test of time
On and on
Can't you see, this is where you belong
I've got so much to give
Let down your guard and let these arms
Shelter you tonight

Words can be so hard to trust
They made a fool of all of us
Let your emotions be your guide
And go with what you feel inside

I know that what I feel is deep
And when I play, I play for keeps
I know that you've been hurt so bad
But this is something made to last

(Chorus)

I can feel us moving
Closer by the minute
This is so amazing
Have a little faith and
Let me lead the way

I can promise you that

(Chorus) x2
