Tell me what to say
To chase away the voices in your mind
Oh I know that you're afraid
'Cause you've been hurt before so many times
So look deep in to my eyes and

Tell me
Who would ever let a love like this go
They'd have to be crazy
Nothing in a love song even comes close
To the way I feel baby, believe me
I wanna know
Who would ever let a love like this go

Show me what to do
So you can love and leave the past behind
'Cause its got a hold on you
And you just got to put your trust in me this time
Just look deep in to your heart and

Tell me
Who would ever let a love like this go
They'd have to be crazy
Nothing in a love song even comes close
To the way I feel baby, believe me
I wanna know
Who would ever let a love like this go

I have to be crazy
And I'm crazy about you baby
How could I ever let a love like this go
'Cause you amaze me
With everything you say and do
And there's no one in this world for me but you

How could I ever let a love like this go
I'd have to be crazy
Nothing in a love song even comes close
To the way I feel baby, believe me
I wanna know
Who would ever let a love like this go
Who would ever let a love like this go

I'd have to be crazy, baby
