Reluctantly I give flow to this song
Got my fingers crossed hopin' that I'm wrong
But I'll take my chances before this chance is gone
I got a question
Just what's goin' on?
It don't seem quite rational
Reachin' out for multinational assistance
Them cats best be kept at a distance or if needs be met with resistance
They'll give ya crazy lucci but control all the tools
So consumer fools will play by their rules
The fools the fools the fools, Pearse once said at O'Rossa's grave, tryin' to wake up the dead
Ireland unfree shall never be at peace
So why all of a sudden are the troubles gonna cease
Like royal family leeches it seems they're here to stay
But keep hope...
There will be another day

Beware of Greeks bearin' gifts
And Yankees bearin' dollars
Before ya cut a deal think of J.R. from Dallas
I see golden arches span across New Grange
Ho Jos and Starbucks in the Burren makin' mad change
How about White Castle? Don't let culture be a hassle
Tear it down to the ground tear it down
The world's biggest playground
Keep Æmire in mind for tour next little trip
The Emerald Isle Orlando of Europe
Guests of the nation tend to overstay
But keep hope...
There will be another day

To maintain a level I remain a rebel
Take stands won't shake hands with the devil
Not me son, they don't got me on the run
Humpty Dumpty was pushed coz no one had a gun
When a wrong remains a wrong a right remains a right
Darkness is darkest just before the light so keep strong
The road is rough, the road is tough, the road is long
On it alone or with a group either way
As long as one stays on it...

There will be another day
