Neverending always, You will never end
Because You're always neverending
You were there before there was beginning
Always You were, You are neverending

Here You are now with us
Here we are, found in You

And this makes all the difference
This changes everything
Making our whole existence
Worth something, so we sing

La la la la
La la la la

Neverending always, You will never end
Because You're always neverending
You were there before there was beginning

Always You were, You are neverending

Here You are now with us
Here we are, found in You

And this makes all the difference
This changes everything
Making our whole existence
Worth something, so we sing

Oh You make all the difference
Yeah, You change everything
You make our whole existence
Worth something, so we sing

La la la la
La la la la
La la la la
La la la la

La la la la
La la la la

La la la la
La la la la

La la la la
La la la la la
