The tears you cried and he doesn't even care so many lies tell me why they used to be there the games he played he's been plain' from the start you give, he takes and it breaks your heart

I think it's time that you need to face the truth and realize he's not good enough for you Always the same
You keep giving one more chance he'll never change, don't you understand

Chorus

You deserve better than he's treatin you Why would anybody wanna be that cruel ( I din't understand)
You deserve someone who will treat you right
If you ant, I'll be there any place, any time he thinks of him and it's all it seems you do (I will)

His friends there's no time to spend with you He stay away and he doesn't even call no explanation; nothing at all

Chorus:

Why would anybody wanna be that cruel ( I din't
understand)
You deserve someone who will treat you right
If you ant, I'll be there any place, any time

If you only knew the things I give to you

I'll be watchin, waitin, hopin you'll see ( you'll see)
That if love is what you want I've got all you need

He should be treatin you right instead of makin you cry

I never make that mistake

All I'm tryin to say :

2x Chorus:

You deserve better than he's treatin you
understand)
You deserve someone who will treat you right
If you ant, I'll be there any place, any time

Why would anybody wanna be that cruel ( I din't
understand)
You deserve someone who will treat you right
If you ant, I'll be there any place, any time
