Taking her time
Reading her watch
Watching the boys
They always look up when she comes

Hope I wake up
Early for work
Walk there on time
I know I will never get it right

Ooh, no, no, oh, oh
Working too hard
Selling nothing
Nothing is wrong

We never knew until we ran out of hope
Hope we don't die, leaving to soon, nowhere to go
My God, this world got me shook
Ooh, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I hate my friends most of the time
It never ends
Knock, knock, knock on the door
When you think you're safe at home

I know we will never get it right

I hate my friends most of the time
It never ends
Knock, knock, knock on the door
When you think you're safe at home
When you think you're safe at home
