Please be honest, just hold your complexion
Please just be honest, with your intentions
And please just let this go (oh oh oh oh)
I hear your voice on the radio
And I still sing every word I know
So please just take this slow (oh oh oh oh)
(Pre-Chorus)
Let's find a place where we can hide
And drive like we're the only ones on the road tonight
(Chorus)
Were you honest when you said, this would last forever
Honest when you said, you want to be together
Were you honest when you said, that you remembered
Or did you just fake the truth again
(Verse 2)
Did you come all this way, just to come up short?
Did you try so hard? Only to get hurt
Or do you just, like taking chances
Getting lost, in teenage romance
Sometimes I just don't understand
How this gets to you
(Pre-Chorus)
(Chorus)
(Verse 3)
Time is running out
We've got nothing left now
Have we figured this out
This is all that's left now
