"Edge Of Wilderness"

We write your name across the sky
We fear your ways, we hear your cry
Determined youth will capture you
And tear out your insides

We'll be offering
The bravest man our daughter's hand

You've been to the edge of wilderness
Breaking from the curse of loneliness

The Northern Lights
Will keep away the fierce and ugly

We'll be offering
The bravest man our daughter's hand

You've been to the edge of wilderness
Breaking from the curse of loneliness
Determined youth
Bring home the head and bloody tooth

You've been to the edge of wilderness
Breaking from the curse of loneliness
Determined youth
Bring home the head and bloody tooth
