Well I do what I can
To keep this going before it ever ends
And I plan what to say
When I see you, everything just fades away

Well I dear what I thought
Situations I've never seen before
But is it worth it all
Have I made my point, can I reach for the reward?

Does she know why I'm asking?

Well I hear what you say
Drop the acting, all the games and cut the play
But it's hard to let go
To be your own and to let them know

Well I do what I can
To keep this going before it ever ends
And I think every day
Of all the things I'll do and what I'll say

Does she know why I'm asking?

What if she needs someone?
What if she needs someone?
Oh, what if she needs someone?
Oh, what if she needs someone?

Does she know why I'm asking?
Does she know why I'm asking?
Know why I'm asking
Know why I'm asking
Know why I'm asking
Know why I'm asking
