I can see you behind the curtain an I can smell you, it's unbelievable you got to feel my view touching You got to feel waht only angels can feel Watching you move I've been leaving realtiy starving for stuff form unusual phantasy can I surrender myself to this sinful dream and I yearn ...
Feeling the touch of your hands on my sweating skin smelling your flesh everytime just when I breathe in can I resist the bright shine of your fateful eyes and I yearn ...
I lose control, my sweet seductive angel

I lose control, my sweet seductive girl (one) Crumbling to dust in my hands, what's reality glowing result of my undying phantasy can I surrender myself to your cold embrace
and I yearn ...
Love me to death, drink my blood and tear up my skin you can get all in your life that you want from me can I resist the bewitching sound of your voice so I yearn ...
I lose control, my sweet seductive angel
I lose control, my sweet seductive girl (one)
