Born in a daze, I
Can not remember my name

Falling from earth, I
Got nothing to grab
There's nothing to grab

The insects eat the parasites
I think I need to step outside

Oh wicked wind
Where have you been?
I was born in your storm
And i've missed you since then

Oh evil rain
Why did you go?
You whispered my name
Do you still feel the same way?

I still feel the same

The face on the timeline
A compass and map
I'm a sarcastic laugh

They gnaw on our lifeline
And seek the same treasure
On a different path

The warmth in you can save the world
Now I think it's time you stepped outside

Oh wicked wind
Where have you been?
I was born in your storm
And i've missed you since then

Oh evil rain
Why did you go?
You whispered my name
Do you still feel the same way?

I still feel the same

Alien burial
Alien bury her

Alien burial
Alien bury her

Oh wicked wind
Where have you been?
I was born in your storm
And i've missed you since then

Oh evil rain
Why did you go?
You whispered my name
Do you still feel insane?

Alien burial
Alien bury her

Alien burial
Alien bury her

Alien burial
Alien bury her

Alien burial
Alien
I'll marry her
