n the worst times
I say the best lines

In the place with the city view
I sit and smile like I'm someone new

I'll never back down
I'll never turn around

But I'm afraid of coming down
So what's the distance to the ground?

I can't wait to meet you
My only one
And ask forgiveness
For all i've done

But I don't want to wait that long
No I don't want to wait that long

I can't be alone without burning
So can I take you home and fuck with you?

Man, I don't feel the way I used to
But I don't mind as long as you do

I watched them laugh at my fortitude
A plastic wrist and a brand new view

So get your facts straight
Before you separate

I can't wait to meet you
My only one
And ask forgiveness
For all i've done

But I don't want to wait that long
No I don't want to wait that long

Lock your doors
And wait it out

Ignore the sound
I'll wipe the grin from your mouth

I'm gonna save your soul
For my own sake
Oh, who would have known?
It was my biggest mistake

God loves
God loves
God loves your little soul

God loves
God loves
God loves your little soul

God loves
God loves
God loves your little soul

God loves
God loves
God loves your little soul

Go away, where you belong
Go away, where you belong
