You told me that you're shy in every way
You are afraid of kissing me in a sexy way
You seem like someone whose father was pretty gay
But i don't care because tonight you've got to stay

Kiss me there even if it smells funny
Touch me here oh I like it

Your hair is fair and your eyes they are so blue

I tell you babe there's nothing wrong with what we do
If you are silent I will do nothing to you
But the worst about this story is that it is maybe true

Kiss me there even if it smells funny
Touch me here oh I like it
You're afraid honey you don't have to be
You'll be paid when you're grown up
