"I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to believe that God exists(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to think that God exists(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to define love as God (
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to define prayer as God(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to define hope as God(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to separate myself from earth(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to separate myself from creation(
I forgive myself that I have allowed myself to separate myself from here"

Underneath our feet
As they laid down eggs in our wound
The promised land starts now

Privilegivm
The tree of life is burning
Climb up and catch the serpents flame
A new Bethlehem covered in filth
We will be one with them

The universe is open
As the tree reaches the sky
And we eat from wounds and apples
Slipping from the eggs of life

They'll be with you in paradise
They'll be with you in paradise
They'll be with you in paradise
They'll be with you in paradise((
