If you are lost in you way deep in an awesome story don't be in doubt and stray ching to you lonesome folly

Now you're too close to the pain let all the rain go futher come back and kiss me in vain mother oh do not bother hear the chorus of pain taking you back to proper ways it's so easy to find if you chould remind me

Now you are lost in your way
so I will find you again kiss you for lonesome folly
