as i look into the mirror i know i wouldnt be here if not for You when i caused You so much pain and You couldve turned away
Your faith held true when my life had turned to ashes and my dreams went up in smoke
you were the constant line my only source of hope

~chorus~

You saved me at each and every turn
as i stood frozen on the bridges i would burn
You saved me when i was my own worst enemy
Your love is the key that set me free
Lord You saved me

when i look up at the cross and consider all it cost i stand amazed then im driven to my knees cause my mind cannot conceive Your endless grace
You know the very number of every hair upon my head You loved me and You chose me before i took my first breath

~chorus~

You saved me at each and every turn
as i stood frozen on the bridges i would burn
You saved me when i was my own worst enemy
Lord You saved me

~repeat chorus~
