Oh well you had to fit

But you're fit to drop

Open up the window and jump into the blue

Things could be marvellous

Things could be fabulous

You need a push

I'll push you off

Open up the window and jump into the blue

Things could be marvellous

Things could be fabulous

too

Oh, and these are the days

And this is the life

There'll always be something on your mind

You'll never quite find

Won't you ever make your mind up

Oh well you had to hit

'Til you hit the top

Open up the window and jump into the blue

Things could be marvellous

Oh, and these are the days

And this is the life

There'll always be something on your mind

You'll never quite find

Won't you ever make your mind up

Now you'll never be sure

If this is the time

If this is the moment

The end of the line

You'll never decide

You used to know but now you've forgotten

You sit there and wait for the phone to ring

When are they going to call

Are they ever going to call you at all

And then oh!

Things could be marvellous

Oh, and these are the days

And this is the life

There'll always be something on your mind

You'll never quite find

Won't you ever make your mind up

Now you'll never be sure

If this is the time

If this is the moment

The end of the line

You'll never decide

You used to know but now you've forgotten

A submarine got stuck to the bottom

These are the days so wake up

'Cos this is the time

And you know I'm right
