"What If"

You've been away so long, too long

What's wrong with us today

We're running out of funny things to say

Home, I'm almost glad you made it

I'd never thought I'd see the day

What if now, after all

What if everything you've got made you want more

What if now, after all, you're still not sure

Remember when a thought could last forever and a day

Lets get back to waking up that way

Love, I'm almost glad we've made it

I never thought we'd see the day

What if now, after all

What if everything you've got made you want more

What if now, after all, you're still not sure

But before you slip, take a friendly tip

From a friendly face on a sinking ship

Don't ever doubt it, scream and shout it out

What if now, after all [What if I miss you]

What if everything you've got made you want more

What if now, after all]What if I need you]

you're still not sure
