"Wishaway"

See those eyes are brown I wish they were blue

Take that wish away and make it come true

I know you could be wrong but maybe you're right

Take that wishaway and do what you like

A wishaway

You laugh and grab the words before they get loose

Put that wish away, in case it comes true

I wish today you'd stay, maybe tonight

You'd blow away the smoke and hold me tight

A wishaway

Oh don't you lie, I can read you're mind

I know you never would but you feel as though

You wish you could be

A wishaway

Do you feel alive, will you be alright

I hope you do, I know you do
