The sun is gone and the flowers rot
Words are spaces between us
And I should've been drowned in the rivers I found of token lost
And I should've been down when you made me insecure

So break me down, if it makes you feel right
And hate me now, if it keeps you all right
You can't break me down, if it takes all your might
'Cause I am so much more than meets the eye

And I'm the one you can never trust
'Cause wounds are ways to review us
And yet I could've tried and devoted my life to both of us

But what a waste of my time when the world we had was yours

So break me down, if it makes you feel right
And hate me now, if it keeps you all right
You can't break me down, if it takes all your might 'Cause I am so much more than all your lies

Hate me, break me down
So break me down
So break me down

So break me down, if it makes you feel right
And hate me now, if it keeps you all right
You can't break me down if it takes all your might
'Cause I am so much more than meets the eye
