Build your cages
Pray for freedom
Believe all your made up sages
Sucked out from your social circle
Is it worth the fifteen minutes
Sacrifice everything you know you love
The dream entices you to give yourself away
Sacrifice everything you know you love
You miss the things you hated long ago

Embellish your desired state
Do you think it satiates
Sucked out from your social circle
Is it worth the fifteen minutes
Dreams are seldom what they seem
Dreams are seldom what they seem

Sacrifice everything you know you love
The dream entices you to give yourself away
Sacrifice everything you know you love
You miss the things you hated long ago

You're so close
To nothing

Sacrifice everything you know you love
The dreams entices you to give yourself away
Sacrifice everything you know you love
You miss the things you hated long ago

Dreams are seldom what they seem
Dreams are seldom what they seem
