"All Of The Darkness"

Everybody tries to be straight
But things are still unchanged
It's useless to resist
Their effort will be wasted
Head straight for your goal by any means
There is a door tht you never opened
There is a window with a view you have never seen
Get there no matter how long it takes

Chorus:
Oh dark the darkness
That dozes in the dusk
Throw it all away
No one can break you
Nobody can tear you
You live an endless life forever
Oh dark the darkness that dozes in the dusk
Throw it all away
You see a light where-ever you go
You have to face it again and again[

Instrumental

Oh dark the darkness
That dozes in the dusk
Throw it all away
