everybody tries to be straight but things are still unchanged it's useless to resist their effort will be wasted head straight for your goal by any means there is a door tht you never opened there is a window with a view you have never seen get there no matter how long it takes chorus:

oh dark the darkness
that dozes in the dusk
throw it all away
no one can break you nobody can tear you
you live an endless life forever oh dark the darkness that dozes in the dusk
throw it all away
you see a light where-ever you go you have to face it again and again INSTRUMENTAL

throw it all away
