I'm so glad I found my home
I've been walking through this world alone
Wondering where I fit in
Where do I belong?
Now a miracle's happened to me
I found my home

Home is a place in your heart
Where memories flow
Just close your eyes
And the child inside of you goes
Back to the the place the you've always called your own
Back to the special feeling
That I'll never know

I'm so glad I found my home
I been walking through this world alone
Wondering where I fit in
Where do I belong?
Now a miracle's happened to me
I found my home

I found my home

I found my home
