(rap)

Something is callin' me; I don't know what
Something is talkin', but I don't know who
Something is callin' me more and more
No one stops Knuckles' feet

(rap)

Something is callin' me; I don't know what
Something is talkin', but I don't know who
Something is callin' me more and more
No one stops Knuckles' feet

(rap)

K-N-U-C-K-L-E-S

Was born for a lifetime on Angel Island
His duty's to protect Master Emerald diamonds
Hold the climate; he's searching for shinin'
But everytime he look for the sun, can't find it
Is this the way, the path I chose
Then why am I livin' with my heart so cold
All that I see is a storm of stones
(verse 1 and rap simultaneously)
I like to dig holes in search of gold
Large pots of treasure make me feel much better
If I fight Eggman, Rouge, whoever
Clench my fist tight, become more redder
I don't wanna hurt up my passion observed
I been lonely all my life, does it matter
Here for the mission, whoever want to bring it
Call me stubborn, but I'm still gonna live it
(verse 1 ends)

Do anything to get pieces of the emerald
Climb the mountain, through the valley, around the hill
Wild and hungry ain't a damn thing funny
My philosophy's my knuckles and feet

(Verse 1)

Born on an island in the heavens
The blood of my ancestors flows inside me
My duty is to save the flower
From evil Deterioration

Streaking lights, loud sounds, and instincts
Are the elements that keep me going
I am fighting my own mission
Nothing's gonna stand in my way, no

(rap)

Something is callin' me; I don't know what
Something is talkin', but I don't know who
Something is callin' me more and more
No one stops Knuckles' feet

I won't be frightened, I'll stand up to all the pain and
turmoil
Just believe in myself, won't rely on others
Use this power to wipe out the havoc and anarchy
This is my planet, gonna fight for my destiny

(rap)

Something is callin' me; I don't know what
Something is talkin', but I don't know who
Something is callin' me more and more
No one stops Knuckles' feet

I have no such things as weak spots
Don't approve of him, but gotta trust him
This alliance has a purpose
This partnership is only temporary

I won't be frightened, I'll stand up to all the pain and
Just believe in myself, won't rely on others
Freedom will be waiting when serenity is restored
This is my planet, I shall not surrender

(rap)

I was born like this, to fear no one
I'm straight thugged out, I only live to my ones
Diamonds and gems, we can battle to the end
You best to be aware of the knuckles that I send Once they penetrate, they'll put you to your death
They're hard as iron and my feet are like fire
You'll never see me run, I won't surrender
I'll just fly away like it's no other contender

I won't be frightened, I'll stand up to all the pain and
Just believe in myself, won't rely on others
Use this power to wipe out the havoc and anarchy
This is my planet, gonna fight

I won't be frightened, I'll stand up to all the pain and

Just believe in myself, won't rely on others

Freedom will be waiting when serenity is restored

This is my planet, I shall not surrender

(rap x4)

Something is callin' me; I don't know what

Something is talkin', but I don't know who

Something is callin' me more and more

No one stops Knuckles' feet
