Come into my arms
Leap into my mind
I clothe the naked
Give eyes to the blind

The guided youth of all are dancing wildly
The air is a bloodred stream flickering Formed by thousand lights (the world's going down
The world's going to the devil
So come on down to metropolis)

Come into my arms
Leap into my mind
I clothe the naked

Anything you want you'll get
But not from me
I've always known That what tomorrow brings
Is not enough for you
You want promises i can't keep You want the dreams out of my sleep (tilgi oss for vi vet ikke hva vi gj r)
You haunt the dreams out of my sleep
So come on - see for yourself
I've got nothing to hide
And i don't care if i have to step aside
And let you be the one To stop the beat of my heart as long as there is mountains to move i will have earth as my talent and the universe as a weakness (tilgi oss for vi vet ikke hva vi gj r)
so tell the fly on the wall that i will stay i will stay below the milky way and tell them what i have to say that i will stay for just one more day so anything you want - you will get but not from the foetus of my mind never come into my arms

leap into my mind
i clothe the naked
give eyes to the blind

like a pearl in the ocean i promised you the earth i cut the hand that feeds me i'll cut the frost below my feet and i'll give fear to the brave
i'll cut the frost below my feet
and i'll tell you where the rain will fall and i'll tell you why the bedroom is so cold

come into my arms
leap into my mind
give eyes to the blind
