it's all for the best you just don't know and though it's all very painful you will consent to add fuel to the fire to pray for kingdom come it's all just a question who'll play the prodigal son

and i'm guilty
immersed in thought
i'm numbered
i am guilty
though it makes no sense to you but i'm guilty cause god is cold

it's all for the better if you're acceptance is law and this may be for nothing if comprehension is slow don't do as i do - do as i say (i have been blind)

don't do as i do - do as you feel (think every hour)
don't do as i do - do as i don't (of Saffron Flower)
don't do as i do - do as you want and i'm guilty of stealing your heart of darkness and i'm guilty i'm stealing your heart of darkness
