Like the days in a black coma
Like the wheels in a velodrome
Like the punches you never take
Like the friends you will never make
Like a child's depression will fade away

Like the wheels

Like the rush of my adrenaline
Like the lift of a trampoline
Like a movie you've never seen like the places you've never been
Like the wheels
Just like tomorrow
So far away

Your first kiss
Was all I needed
Your last wish
Loving you was the least I could do

Like a kite trapped in electric wires
Like the need to enjoy
