Over years I'll find my next life to be unperceivable.
Go and take it back.
This is the last time you'll see sunlight.
Get ready for this. Everyone thinks they have me fooled.
I feel this has gone a bit too far.
Fickle and empty you are.
So I guess this is our farewell.
You cut me deep with your eyes and your intentions.
So I guess this is our farewell.
This is the place where we go wrong.
You cut me deep with your eyes and your intentions.
This is the place where we go wrong.
There's a war inside my head and you're waging it.
Go and take it back.
Take back my eyesight.
This storm's about to blow over.
So make sure to keep your eyes covered.
This storm's about to blow over.
So make sure to keep your eyes covered.
