Life, is floating fast away.
But I look, your head is turned away.

From the moment you left I knew that something wasn't right.
But the feeling inside has kept me up all night.

You and me (and me) like one heart-beat.
You and me (and me) like one heart-beat.

So slice open my veins.
And let, the romance bleed away.

From the moment you left I knew that something wasn't
right.
But the feeling inside has kept me up all night.

You and me (and me) like one heart-beat.
You and me (and me) like one heart-beat.

Back into what I thought I knew, these words inside me,
tell me what to do.
My heart held, in the palm of your hand.
(Forget my name) Now I know, the way to go, this place inside my demented mind. You saw me bleeding on the bathroom floor.

(Forget my name) This time in silence, this time I win.
(Forget my name) This time in silence, this time I win.
(Forget my name) This time in silence, this time I win.
(Forget my name) Now you will know my pain.
Forget my name (repeat till end of song)
