

Senses Fail "Headed West"

Visit "Headed West" on MotoLyrics.com

Sometimes I feel so meaningless
Tangled up in the widows web
The more I struggle
The tighter the noose will get

I'm screaming for help
Outside of the school for the deaf
I'll spill my guts
To anyone who will listen

I'm headed west
To try to test my bravery
Face to face with my thoughts
Is what I need
The rear view reminds me
The future's passing presently

If I could just hit rewind
Eject and erase it
I've gotta replace this tape
'Cause it can't sing along

Because you, you ruin so many songs
Even though it's been so long
All that I ever do is Drink enough to try to forget

Let's sober up
And wait for the sun
Before we take back
Everything that we've done

I'm headed west
To try to test my bravery
Face to face with my thoughts
Is what I need
The rear view reminds me
The future's passing presently

I've spent so much of my time
Tryin' to see
Someone else

Someone I could never be

You can't change yourself
Through changin' scenery
The rear view reminds us
Where we've been

Yeah, I'm wasting all my time
I'm looking for something
That I'll never find
I'm wasting all my time
I'm looking for something
That I might never find

Let's sober up
And wait for the sun
Before we take back
Everything that we've done

I'm headed west
To try to test my bravery
Face to face with my thoughts
Is what I need
The rear view reminds me
The future's passing presently

I spent so much of my time
Tryin' to see
Someone else
Someone I could never be

You can't change yourself
Through changin' scenery
I tried but it doesn't mean
I can forget the person that I am

Visit Senses Fail page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.