Connection has never been stronger,
We see the same things,
I Gave all my money to God,
Expecting relief, and as they kicked me out,
I Swore...

Somebody is a liar,
You shouldn't play with fire, You may get Burned,
You know, You know, I put my trust in this,
But I know, I know, I've been misplacing it.

I thought I was different, But I did the same things,
You were wrong and admitted it, saw you were just like me,
Where was the grace I had before?

Somebody is a liar,
You shouldn't play with fire, You may get Burned,
You know, You know, I put my trust in this,
But I know, I know, I've been misplacing it

I Ran!, and I Ran, And I ran for you!
But I broke my word, but I broke my word.
I see, and I see, and I see it's true,
That I broke my word, That I broke my word.
Where was the grace I had before?

Somebody is a liar,
You shouldn't play with fire, You may get Burned,
You know, You know, I put my trust in this,
But I know, I know, I've been misplacing it

I Broke My word!
