speaking of the truth, i like to hear that once in a while and i'll even listen to all your vanity utter lies are like butterflies they just both die in a couple of days show me all your proof, put it right in front of my eyes

utter lies are like butterflies

and what's in me and what's in you, we're just bricks on the floor solid ground for standing when we kick down the door and it leaves my heart room for expanding on you it gets to me, but you don't have to wait for me because i'm already yours

tell me about your life, i'd like to hear that story again especially the part about your vanity honest words are like august thirds they just both come maybe once in a year and keeping your opinions to a quiet little hush it's like brushing your teeth with a razor, shaving with a toothbrush just leaves your heart room for exploding all over me and then it gets to you, but you don't have to wait for me

utter lies are like butterflies
